

‘Insurance and Society’ Program

- June 9 th -
13:30	Enter Zoom
13:45- 14:00	Welcome
	Organization and Expertise
14:00- 15:45	Robin Pearson	Delusions of competence: Experts, regulators, and Lloyd’s of London 1970-2002
	Paula Jarzabkowski	Paying out on which promise? Temporal paradoxes in the static remits and evolving expectations of PGES
	Tom Baker	What happens when the projections go terribly wrong? The case of US long term care insurance
Discussant: JoAnne Yates
15:45- 16:15	Break
	States and Markets against Catastrophes
16:15- 17:45	Emanuel Ubert	Population-level learning from environmental shocks: Evidence from homeowner insurance entry into hurricane-prone markets
	Rebecca Elliot	The state and the state-of-the-art: Public obligations and private sector practices under risk rating 2.0
	Jessica Weinkle	House of Cards: Scientific integrity, climate change, and the insurance industry
Discussant: Larry Frohman

- June 10 th -
	Insurance Cultures
14:00- 15:45	Arjen van der Heide	Talk the talk and walk the walk? European insurance capital regulation and the financial vocabulary of motive
	Sebastian Kohl	Varieties of private insurance: Maritime versus Alpine

	Martin Lengwiler	Global cultures of risk: The role of insurance in processes of globalization (19th/20th c.)
Discussant: Matthieu Leimgruber
15:45-16:15	Break
	Mutualism and its Competitors
16:15-17:30	Liselotte Eriksson / Lars Fredrik Andersson / Bernard Harris	Mutualism versus the state? The relationship between voluntary and statutory welfare provision in early-twentieth century Sweden
	Vera Linke	Mutual imitations. 19th century interdependencies between insurance corporations and friendly societies
Discussant: Jerònia Pons Pons
17:30-17:45	Break
17:45	Keynote Timothy Alborn 'The Ethics of Information and the Perils of Mutualism'
19:00	Informal get together

- June 11th -
	Behavioural Tariffs Part 1
14:00-15:15	Elena Esposito / Alberto Cevolini	From Actuarial to Behavioural Valuation: The Impact of Telematics on Motor Insurance
	Liz McFall	Zooming in on risk? Insurtech and the business of disruption
Discussant: Sara Aguiton
15:45-16:15	Break
	Behavioural Tariffs Part 2
15:30-16:45	Barbara Kiviat	Good Prices for the Well-Behaved: Americans' Class-Based Views on Who Should Pay More for Insurance and Credit
	Turo-Kimmo Lehtonen / Maiju Tanninen	Autonomy at stake in behavioural insurance
Discussant: Hugo Jeanningros
16:45-17:15	Final Round / Coordination	